Student's Letter (Excerpt):

First of all, thank you for taking your time to read my letter.

Talking about myself, I'm quite a studious boy. I'm passionate with photography and I often use my free time to go around looking for some good views. I love aviation, learning how planes and airlines work rhythmically is really interesting. I also like to learn about economics and news. My mom is a business-woman and she taught me a lots about market rules and different kind of law, sometimes she also gives me economic books to let me figure it out myself.

In the other hand, I'm a sociable and dynamic boy. In my home country, I usually take place in many social activities. In summer, I go to summer camps. Camps is where I show my personality, make friend and train my social skills. Dancing, joining competitions with other camper may be bored for some teenagers but I'm not. In addition, I often joining charity with my class, we yearly visits an orphanage. Kids in this orphanage always try their best to be helpful to life. Their efforts make every trips here bring me a lots of emotion. In every trip of my class, I usually the one who get up with the plan. Although create a schedule is not easy but it's seem to be worth the precious time. As I'm the MC and plan maker for my class, my classmates love me a lots. At the weekend, I usually hang out with my friends, watching movies and talking 'bout things that people at our ages care about. If I have a chance, I hope you guys will be my second-family. I will try my best to expand my knowledge and my social skill.

Love, Duy
