Student's Letter (Excerpt):

Hello there my new potential host family,

I want to write a letter about my personal interests and all the things that you should know about me so thats what im going to do. First things first : My name is Jarne (yeah thats right ,its jaRne and not jane it comes from danmark), by the time that arive i will be 16 years old. Doesnt sound like a lot, because it isnt. Despite of my young age i am a very interesting person. Why? Well i cant really tell. Maybe you can figure it out. Here is some personal data: I am in general a very talkative person and i like to discuss with people a lot (Dont get this wrong i just like to communicate and i am not pushy but definitely an extrovert) people with different opinons are my favourites because they help me to enrich my idea pool and show me new viewing points. When i am not making new friends ;) I really love to draw stuff. Mostly fantasy subjects like dragons or angels. A lot of inspiration comes from an asian cardgame that i play with my friends or at the local tournament. Its called Yu-Gi-Oh.While drawing i often listen to music as I am doing right now. When have finished a picture i like to share it with my friends on instagram where i have an acount for my art. At the moment i am planing (together with a friend of mine who is headgirl) on drawing a very big picture on one of our gray boring school walls,as the scool principal asked me to do.Enough about my art. There are a lot of other things that i like to do. Snowboarding is just one of them. I visited a snowboardcamp together with my friends this year and we had excellent snow so we trained our skill set. Sometimes my father, who taught me how to snowboard, and i go snowboarding together too. Oh i absolutely forgot... my family... I have got a mother and a father like everyone does and also a cute little sister with whom i often fight (dont tell anyone ... but i secretly love her).I have a very good relation to my parents and we often do things together. I am not really demanding so i dont expect a lot from you. I would feel very honored if you would take me and i am sure that ill learn a lot from you. Im looking forward to our year together and i am very excited to hear about you.

In hope that you liked what i wrote ,

Jarne
